WOPEE.IO

Wopee.io
AI Testing Agent for Apps

Platform for autonomous testing of web applications

Wopee.io helps teams deliver software faster. With AI test agents. The platform automatically crawls the application, creates and runs tests, monitors appearance changes, and reduces automation maintenance costs. It integrates with Playwright and other common test automation tools. It delivers higher coverage, fewer false positives, and clear reports for quick bug fixes.

Unique Selling Points:

- AI test agents that adapt to AI changes. Minimum maintenance compared to traditional automation.
- Combining functional and visual regression testing in one platform.
- Quick to deploy and easy to use. No complicated configuration, fast results even for smaller teams.
- Transparent and integratable solution. Playwright, Cypress, WebdriverIO, CI/CD.
- Superior support and rapid product iteration based on customer feedback.
