VR CLASSES

VR MUSICIANS

An app that provides the opportunity to learn piano in virtual reality with a real music teacher remotely.

VR Musicians brings a new standard of piano instruction with a choice of the best piano teachers anywhere in the world. It is suitable both for complete beginners who can quickly master their first folds with the automatic learning module, and for professionals who want to improve their skills accompanied by the best teachers. The app also allows you to practice managing stage fright when playing in front of large audiences or playing four-handed on one piano, and has an integrated automatic learning mode.

Unique selling points:

- Distance piano lessons.
- The app offers multiplayer in which two real pianos can be played, with the user playing a four-hand piano in VR.
- Includes an integrated tutorial mode.
