BRAINBEAMS HEALTH

Brain Beams

A neuromodulation app that helps adults with ADHD to concentrate better.

BrainBeams is a mobile app that helps you achieve better concentration. It will be appreciated by adults with ADHD, students, professionals, gamers, and anyone who needs to finish attention-intensive tasks they've been putting off. The app uses the brainwave entrainment effect and a unique method of audiovisual stimulation. Game mechanisms and daily inspiration help to hone your attention in the long term and work on the negative influences of impulsivity.

Unique selling points:

- A unique method combining cognitive neuroscience and gamification.
- Immediate support for your ability to focus – anytime, anywhere.
- Watch your concentration improve day by day
